Continued:

1. Sand the tree slice elements piece using a sanding block to remove some of the finish and allow it to accept the ink easier.
2. Stamp the sentiment using Pretty Peacock Classic Ink.
3. Stamp the wheat image using Soft Suede Classic Ink onto the Mini Shipping Box top long flap on the left side. (Not the side that has the flap that tucks in and closes; that is the bottom.)
4. Turn box over and repeat on the other flap.
5. Using your Bone Folder create and assemble the Mini Shipping Box.
6. Place a piece of Tear & Tape at one end on the back side of your Come to Gather Designer Series Paper belly band.
7. Then place your belly band on the bottom of the box.
8. Wrap the belly band around the box and use your fingers to create a crease around the sides of the box. (You can leave a little give so that the belly band slips off easier).
9. Remove the Tear & Tape paper and adhere the end of the belly band to the top of the other end.
10. Using the Cajun Craze Card stock piece, cut out the 2 maple leaf shapes.
11. Ink up the small and medium leaf dies with the Soft Suede Classic Ink. Place them onto Crumb Cake card stock and run through the die cutting machine. (See video tutorial for tips).
12. Adhere the leaves to the belly band on the top left and bottom right as shown.
13. Place a piece of Cajun Craze Linen Thread through the stamped tree slice Element piece and tie into a bow.
14. Place Stampin' Dimensionals onto the back of the tree slice Element and adhere onto the belly band.
15. Slip off belly band, open box and fill box as desired.
16. Place belly band back onto the filled box.
