Assembly:

1. Stamp you wolfman image using Memento tuxedo black Ink onto Whisper White card stock.
2. Color the image using Crumb Cake Stampin' Blends Combo Pack for the face and body.
3. Color the shirt using the Highland Heather Stampin' Blends Combo Pack.
4. And color the tip of the nose using the Basic Black Light Stampin' Blends.
5. Cut the image out using the Layering Circle Die.
6. Cut out a coordinating scallop circle using the Basic Black Card stock.
7. Stamp the sentiment using Memento Tuxedo Black Ink onto Wisper White card stock piece.
8. Add Tear & Tape Adhesive to the (wrong side) side and bottom of the Monster Bash Designer Series paper as shown in the video. (This will create what looks like the letter L).
9. Remove protective strips on both sides.
10. Lay the Hershey's candy bar down in the center of the Monster Bash Designer Series paper and wrap the top edge of the Monster Bash Designer Series Paper down first around the candy bar. (This is the edge that does not have the adhesive) Making sure that the edges line up.
11. Then bring up the other edge up and adhere on both the top edge and left side. Making sure that the edges line up.
12. Take a piece of the Basic Black 3/8" Scalloped Edge Ribbon and wrap it around the candy bar. Tie into a Knot and trim ends as desired.
13. Adhere the wolfman image to the scallop circle using Stampin' Dimensionals.
14. Then adhere the image to the candy bar by adding a bit of adhesive in the center of the circle.
15. Punch out the sentiment using the 1" Circle Punch or small Layering Circle Die. Add a Stampin' Dimensional to the back. Layer it onto the wolfman.
16. Add a couple of dots of Multipurpose Liquid Adhesive to the wolfman's eyes.
17. Pick up the Assorted Googly Eyes and add them to the wolfman image. Allow to dry.
