Continued:

1. Stamp the small dragonfly group image using Bumblebee Classic Ink along the left edge of the of the Basic White Card stock panel as shown.
2. Stamp the sentiment in the using Misty Moonlight Classic Ink on the lower right-hand corner of the Basic White Card stock panel.
3. Add the longer strip of stripped Dandy Garden Designer Series Paper about 1 3/4" up from the bottom edge of the sentiment panel.
4. Adhere the layered panel to the card front.
5. Place Stampin' Dimensionals onto the back of the two remaining strips of Dandy Garden Designer Series Paper.
6. Adhere the first strip onto the card front along the bottom and the second strip along the top of the stripped piece. Make sure to leave a bit of the stripe pattern showing.
7. Using Bumblebee Classic Ink stamp the wing image twice on the Bumblebee card stock panel to create a shadow for the dragonfly.
8. Adhere the Bumblebee Card stock panel to center of the popped-up strips as shown. Making sure to apply adhesive only along the top and bottom edges.
9. Punch a dragonfly out using a piece of the Dandy Garden Designer Series Paper with the Dragonflies Punch. (See punching tip below)
10. Add a Stampin' Dimensional to the back of the wings and then adhere onto the card front so that the dragonfly is hovering over the wings shadow.
11. Stamp inside Basic White panel using the dragonfly image and Bumblebee Classic Ink in the upper left-hand corner.
12. Stamp envelope as desired.
